Community Sharing:

Highland Park Neighborhood – Ruth Danis & Michael Tomb

1. The Third Annual Children's Movie Series began this past Saturday when "UP" was shown. On March 6th BOLT will be presented at 10AM.
2. On Wednesday, January 27th, from 7-9PM the second annual "School-Choice Meeting" will be held at School 12 in the Cafeteria/Multi-Purpose Room. HPNA and School 12 PTA are Co-Sponsoring this event. Refreshments and information are available from 6:30 PM.
3. A Highland Park Arts and Cultural Team will have its first meeting on February 3rd.
4. The Highland Park Traffic Calming Team is having an Open Team Meeting on Tuesday, February 23, 2010 at 7 pm at the NSC Office at 846 South Clinton Ave. The Team presentation shared with Rochester's SE Quadrant Officials on November 12th is on the web at our blog site: www.buzzblastandblog.com
5. In cooperation with SEAC, The Highland Park Neighborhood Association has received a grant from The Arts & Cultural Council of Greater Rochester for a project that includes commissioning a "Family Friendly" art sculpture within Ellwanger & Barry Park. Craig Wilson, an artist who also designs exhibits at The Strong Museum, has been chosen to create the artwork. To oversee this project and similar initiatives as well as manage our Lilac Festival events, we are forming the Highland Park Neighborhood Arts and Cultural Team. Email us at arts@highlandparkrochester.org if you are interested in joining this team.
6. In addition to The Highland Blast, we have started a new e-mail newsletter that is devoted solely to Security Related matters. To subscribe to the Highland Security Bulletins, look for a link on our News and Events Blog (www.buzzblastandblog.com) where you will also find a new Security Alert Page.
7. Saturday January 23, 2010 is a special edition of the Neighborhood's year –long Guided Series Tours of Highland Park and is inside Lamberton Conservatory. Our guide Amy invites the whole family to come along. Please note: unless you have already purchased a conservatory membership, there will be a fee of $3 to take the January tour. Free outside tours will resume on the third Saturday of the month on February 20th.

Hickory N.U.T.S – Jayne Morgan

~ On December 23, the Hickory N.U.T.S. celebrated the holidays by caroling the street complete with a battery-powered cello! There was an after-caroling party hosted by Jayne Morgan and Gary Loitsch. Everyone had a very merry time.

~ There will be a New Year's Tea at the home of Dave Voisinet in early February.

~ Welcome baskets continue to be delivered to new residents on the street.

NYS Coalition of Property Owners – Bill Gerling

Bill circulated a newspaper article about an upcoming legal procedure that will test the constitutionality of Rochester's administrative search warrant to determine if properties are meeting City Code.

Amy Happ (University of Rochester) supplied copies of the Eastman School of Music spring schedule, Encore! To view the wide variety of musical offerings, visit the website at www.esm.rochester.edu/concerts .

HPNA

Projects include:

Traffic Calming Committee

Public Art in Ellwanger Barry Park. It was made possible by a grant from the Arts Council with help from SEAC. Artist Craig Wilson will create the "family friendly" work.

Census 2010

Representative asked that businesses become partners: display info, offer a place for someone from the Census Bureau to sit and help people to fill out forms. Jobs will be available until August.

Sector Plans_Available funds in sectors/quadrants

NBN 6 has done exceptional work in creating strategic plans, carrying out projects and using available funds. Other sectors have money remaining. Funds will be available through June 30, 2010.

Residents discussed the reimbursement problems they've encountered in working with the City. They often had to wait some time to receive payment after they submitted the receipts. The system will be changing.

Members will review the current Sector Plan "goal by goal."

Joan Lindberg will look at minutes and see how action plans
